

Sinclair Broadcasting intends to break federal election laws by airing a feature length smear campaign against Senator John Kerry while refusing to give the Senator equal time for the same purpose.

It is a federal crime for Sinclair to air this piece.

Please give Americans hope that the FCC is not a puppet for the Bush administration.

After the quick, sharp responses to Janet Jackson's breast and Howard Stern's 'bad' words, ignoring a feature length presentation that breaks federal election law would cement the popular notion that the FCC punishes only those who do not support the conservative religious ideology of the Bush regime.

Please uphold your laws, federal laws, and the will of a free society: prevent Sinclair from airing anti-Kerry propaganda two weeks before voting day.

Thank you.
